AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

ALDERMAN COFFEY RESIGNS HIS PLACE.

HE LEAVES THE BOARD TO BECOME A CANDI-

DATE FOR THE STATE SENATE. As had been expected, Alderman M. J. Coffey. president of the Board of Aldermen, resigned yester day afternoon from the Board, in order to be in readi to accept a nomination for State Senator in the fall, the law requiring that candidates for the Legis lature shall not hold other office within 100 days of the election. The resignation was accepted after several Aldermen had made complimentary speeches A portrait of the Alderman and an engrossed copy of the resolutions adopted when he was elected president last winter in which he was compared in his work for South Brooklyn to the Emperor who found Rommud and left it marble, were displayed at the meet-

Richard Pickering, Alderman-at-Large, was elected resident of the board to succeed Coffey in that office. and Frank Hennessey, of the Fourth Ward, was elected as Aiderman of the First District to fill Coffey's seat. Alderman Hennessey is a real estate dealer and has never held office before. He will receive the salary of 22,000 a year granted to the Alderman last

TROUBLE IN A YOUNG CHURCH. THE PASTOR RESIGNS AND MANY MEMBERS OF THE CONGRESATION THREATEN

TO FOLLOW HIM.

The Rev. A. B. Phillips, pastor of the Church of Christ, in Humboldt-st., near Nassau-ave., preached his farewell sermon at the church last Sunday night, and offered his resignation at the close of the sermon. Most of the younger members of the congregation, including the Christian Endeavor Society of sixty-seven members, say they will leave the church with their pastor, and establish a new church with him as their These say Mr. Phillips was forced out of the church by a minority of the older members.

The church was established about four years ago as a branch of the Church of Christ, in Sterling Place, which has no written creed. It was a mission at first, but it had managed its own affairs until re cently. The pastor, who is a young man, was popular with the younger members, but found that some of the older members were not in sympathy with him He spoke of this lack of sympathy from the pulpit, and so provoked the anger of some of the elder members, particularly that of R. M. Terhune, a fermer trustee, who got several of the organizers to join him in an appeal to the older church, in Sterling Place older church took charge of the new church weeks ago, and a week later, while the Rev. A. B. Phillips was at Ocean Grove, N. J., he was requested

Phillips was at Ocean Grove, N. J., he was requested by the trustees of the Sterling Place church to resign. It was in restonse to that request that he announced his resignation last Sunday night.

The younger members expressed their indignation at the treatment received by the pastor at the close of the service, and they said they expected fully three-quarters of the congregation to withdraw from the church and establish a new one. Mr. Phillips would not say what he expected to do in the future.

SHE DROWNED THE PREACHER'S VOICE. A WOMAN INTERRUPTS A CHURCH SERVICE PRAYS ALOUD FOR PASTOR AND PROPLE.

AND SINGS HYMNS TO A POLICEMAN. Mrs. Barbara Brown, fifty three years old, of No. 24 Siegel-st., Eastern District, was arraigned in the Lee Avenue Police Coart vesterday on a simple charge of intoxication. Policeman Bonner, of the Thirteenth Precinct Police Station, who arrested the woman, told the court how she had disturbed service in the Hopkins Street Presbyterlan Church, Sunday night. said the woman entered the church while the Rev. Mr. Filman was preaching and marched up the centre She stood in front of the pulpit and stretching

"I have the spirit of God within me. I have come to save you. Let us pray."

Then she dropped on her knees and began to pray in a loud tone. The paster went on with his sermon until the woman raised her voice so loud that his voice could not be heard. .Then an usher attempted to remove her, but she turned on him and cried:
"You are a false shepherd. Leave me that I may carry out the work 1 am assigned to do."

Policeman Bonner was summoned and he found it necessary to remove the intruder by main force. As he dragged her from the church she shrieked, struggled and prayed. Her hat was to n off in the She was taken to the police station and locked up for the night. She prayed aloud in her cell a great part of the night, and while being driven from the station to court yesterday morning she sang bymn. Because Policeman Bonner would not join in the chorus, she told him no policeman could enter the kingdom of Heaven.

How do you plend to this charge of intextention ?"

you. It will do you good," said the woman.

This woman should not be charged with intextention. I will hold her for examination as to her mental condition, said the Justice.

Later in the day relatives came to court. They said Mrs. Brown suffered from religions mania, but was harmless. They promised to care for her and were permitted to take her home.

CHARGES AGAINST A WOMAN DOCTOR.

Dr. Isabelia M. Rankine, of No. 626 Willoughby ave., was taken before Justice Connolly, in the Gates Avenue Police Court yesterday, upon a charge pre ferred by Mrs. Lucia L. Balcam, of No. 88 Herkimerst., who sileges that Dr. Rankine was instrumental it inducing her to intrust $2,500 to William E. Warner. which was invested in bogus chattel mortgage Mrs. Balcam has known Dr Rankine for a score of years. When she became a widow she moved to Brooklyn and consulted the soctor about investments. On her representations Mrs. Balcam alleges that she let Warner have money in various sums. He lived in the same house as Dr. Rankine, and had induced Mrs. Balcam to let him have about #3,000, which he invested, giving her chattel mortgages at 6 per cent and a bonus for the use of the money. Mrs. Balcam was pleased with the profits promised and let Warren have $500. He said he had done so well with it that she afterward let him have $2,000. About a forthight ago Warren sucdenly departed from the city, and it is said that he left many victims of his scheme, which was to palm off on investors bogus names on the chattel mertgages which he gave, It is said that he has written to Dr. Rankine that if he has time as will make good all the sams he ower.

Mrs. Balcam alleges that Dr. Rankine was in partnership with Warner, but Dr. Rankine denies this, she said that she lost $3,000 through him. The hearing was adjourned.

HE STOLE THE JUSTICE'S WATCH.

Michael Reynolds was arraigned yesterday before Justice Goetting on the charge of stealing the watch of Justice Kochler, of No. 304 Marcy ave., on Sunday. As the Justice was passing Broadway and Havemeyer-st. two men joiled against him. One of the men grasped his watch and ran away.

Justice Koehler started in pursuit, and was joined by Ralph B. Wilcox, of No. 247 South Ninth-st., who caught the fugitive and turned him over to Policeman Schaefer. The watch was found on the street near where Reynolds was captured. He was held to answer the charge.

HELD FOR PAWNING J. H. DICK'S PROPERTY.

Rudolph Waebberking, the janitor and general overseer of the home of J. H. and William Dick, the wealthy sugar refiners, at Nos. 156 and 164 South Ninthest, who was arrested on Saturday, was held resterday to await the action of the Grand Jury by Justice Goetting, on a charge of grand larceny. When Waebberking was arraigned William Dick was in court and told the Justice that several members of family had come into the city from the country to make an examination of the houses in order to learn how much property Waebberking had pawned. The several attempts to speak to Mr. Dick, and when the latter refused to listen to him he broke tended to redeem all the articles which he had pledged. Waebberking's wife was in court, carrying a young babe. She wept bitterly and appealed in vain to Mr. Dick to withdraw the charge.

An argument was heard by Judge Cullen yesterday | children. in the Supreme Court, upon a motion made by Jesse Assembly districts by the Supervisors set aside on the county into eighteen Assembly districts, equal in population, and each composed of "convenient and furniture of the place. Mulligan made inquiries as contiguous territory." He submitted a map to show to the whereabouts of the husband, and was told that how the county was gerrymandered.

After looking at it Judge Cullen said that if a per-of law. The practice of gerrymandering was a serious evil and one that should be condemned, but in this case he had no power to change the apportionment and se did not think that the difference was more than 10 p r cent. The motion was denied.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Although the report of the commission to lay out the Shore Road, in Bay Ridge, as a public drive has been prepared, it will not be presented to the Mayor until after the Legislature meets. It has been found that the act under which the commission was appointed is probably unconstitutional, and it is desired end it so as to give control over the water front to the city.

The members of the Board of Education will give a dinner to James R. Bouck, the new president of the board, at some date between July 20 and 27.

The will of Theodore K. Horton was offered for probate vesterday. His estate is valued at $5000 real estate and $25,000 personal property, and is divided between the widow and children. The partnership business of T. K. Horton & Co., with Franklin M. Horton as managing partner, is to be continued.

Application was made in the supreme Court yes terday for a mandamus to compel the Board of Assessors to take the property of the Pratt Institute from the tax rolls. It was argued that under the laws of 1887 the property of the institute is exempt as a free charitable institution. In opposition, it was said that it was not a charitable institution, and that the only free features were the library and lectures.

The operation of trolley cars on the Putnam-ave. and Halsey st. line of the Brooklyn City Railroad was begun yesterday. The regular meetings of the Republican election district associations for July will be held this evening

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

MOUNT VERNON.

SURPRISED AND DISGUSTED CITIZENS. The citizens of Mount Vernon have had two good anses for surprise and disgust in the last forty eight hours. One of these was an imposition of the New-York City Suburban Water Company, and the other the action of Governor Flower in denying the people the right of "home rule." It is only a few weeks ago that Mayor Brush, in his message, referred to the numerous complaints of citizens against the water company's arbitrariness and its exorbitant rates, which altogether bring a revenue of about $73,000 a year upon an actual original investment of about $100,000. He then advised the Common Council to consider the possible condemnation of the water plant. About 11 o'clock on saturday night the water was suddenly shut off from every shouse and bydrant in the city, and was not turned on again till nearly 9 o'clock on sunday morning. . . . The second reason for surprise and disgust on the part of the majority of the citizens and of Mayor Brush Waan official communication from the Executive Mansion at Albany, signed by Governor Flower, disapprov ing the removal by Mayor Brush of Excise Commissioner Frank Malone for "wilful neglect of duty and official misconduct." Commissioner Malone was tried on misconduct." Commissioner Malone was tried on four distinct and separate specifications, the testimony covering about 30,000 words. He was charged with "neglecting and failing to pay over to the City Treasurer the sam of $1,000 and upward. It was also charged he had been guilty of misconduct by appearing at meetings of the tourd in "a gress state of intovication." into the had used his official place to "intimidate people engaged in the business of selling wines, also and liquors, for personal benefits and self-aggrandizement."

able pamphlet, 76 large pages, in which the Free Coinage question, so puzzling to the public mind, is argued out, formally, by that ardent advocate of Free Coinage on the old basis of 16 to 1, William M. Stewart, U. S. Senator from Nevada, on the one hand, and, on the other, by Roswell G. Horr, ex-Congressman from Michigan, a sturdy champion of the Republican doctrine that metallic dollars should contain as much metal as they are nominally worth.

Each writer contributes six clearly written, pointed, and able papers to the discussion.
